Imprint Plus Privacy Policy

As our valued customer, Imprint Plus respect your privacy and we want you to feel comfortable with the information we collect from you. We take the matter of your privacy very seriously. Please take a few minutes and read about how we collect, use, manage and disclose personal information, and the measures we take to protect the confidentiality of this personal information.

Definitions

“Personal Information” is information about an identifiable individual that is not the person’s business contact information or work product information.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

This website allows you to purchase services and products subject to the Terms of Use Policy for online purchasers. In the course of online transactions, we will collect information from you necessary to complete the transaction, manage our business, collect on our accounts, and provide delivery. We may also collect information from you to create website activity summary statistics, direct development, customize our online business service, develop marketing activities, and manage online business development efforts.

Disclosure of Personal Information

Any personal information collected will not be disclosed to third parties, except for organizations that we outsource our own work to, in which case the third party will be required to maintain the same privacy protection over all information. We may also be required to disclose your personal information as authorized or required by law, or subject to exceptions in the privacy legislation.

Consent

If you do not consent to having your personal information collected, used and disclosed as set out in this Policy, or if you require further information, or wish to withdraw consent, please contact our Privacy Officer by e-mail at marketing@imprintplus.com or by mail at the following address: Privacy Officer, 21320 Gordon Way Unit 260, Richmond, BC, Canada, V6W 1J8.

Security

We take reasonable security measures to protect personal information collected through the website from loss, unauthorized access, destruction, misuse, modification and disclosure. Our primary objective is to maintain integrity and security of the data. We protect the security of your credit card information during transmission by using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software, which encrypts information you input.

Terms and Conditions

Privacy Officer

The employee responsible for maintaining privacy of information collected via this website can be reached at marketing@imprintplus.com Any questions or inquiries should be directed to that individual.

Accuracy of Information

By accessing this website and online services, you agree that we will not be responsible for any inaccuracies or omissions or consequential damage or loss through the use of the information. We will make reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy of the information is maintained.

Webinar Participant Notices

The registration of webinar attendance is for use by the registrant only and registration information should not be forwarded on to third parties; doing so may hinder your own access, as webinar entry is by prior registration only. Similarly, the materials and replay of webinars are for use by the purchaser only and should not be forwarded on to third parties. Responsibility for the confidentiality and security of webinar registration information and event materials issued by Imprint Plus lies with the registrant. If you believe that a third party has obtained details in an unauthorised manner, please promptly notify marketing@imprintplus.com

The virtual event facility includes a feature that allows audio and any documents and other materials exchanged or viewed during the session to be recorded. By joining a session, you automatically consent to such recordings. If you do not consent to the recording, please contact marketing@imprintplus.com to discuss your concerns in good time prior to the web-event date.

GotoMeeting participation may require you to configure your software settings on your web-device upon first use, or require you to download the software for your operating system. Software can be manually downloaded by visiting the website <https://www.gotomeeting.com>. Please note that you may require administrator privileges on your computer to be able to manually install software.

Privacy Policy

In connection with the operation of the webinar we will ask you to provide us with information that personally identifies you or allows us to contact you ("Personal Information") when you register for the use of the service. The Personal Information that you provide us in these circumstances will be provided to Imprint Plus's provider of its audio- and web-conferencing services, and vendors that assist them in processing the information, for the sole purpose of enabling them to operate and deliver the webinar service. It is a requirement of Imprint Plus's partner vendors to enter into an agreement prohibiting disclosure of this information to others and restricting its use to providing the contracted services of the webinar. The only exception to this is necessary disclosure for legal purposes in line edicts of the law.

Terms and Conditions

Privacy Policy

Imprint Plus's provider of its audio- and web-conferencing services for webinars is a market-leader of audio- and web-conferencing services. With this comes the understanding of users' need for privacy when using the web for communications and the utmost care in providing the highest levels of security possible. The Personal Information that Imprint Plus's provider of its audio- and web-conferencing services collect from webinar registrants is stored in operating environments that employ reasonable security measures and that are not available to the general public. Imprint Plus and Imprint Plus's provider of its audio- and web-conferencing services are not responsible for unauthorised access to such information by hackers or others that obtain access through illegal measures.

A copy of Imprint Plus's audio- and web-conferencing service provider's practices and policy with respect to the collection, use and disclosure of user information collected through use of their technology services can be obtained by contacting marketing@imprintplus.com. Please refer to Imprint Plus's Privacy Policy with respect to Imprint Plus's use of personal information.
