The recommendation checklist for schools, colleges, and educational institutes.

CREATING SAFE, CONNECTED SPACES THAT FOSTER CONNECTIONS.

The education industry has turned upside down during the past year making way for new ideas, tools, and processes that create safer spaces and foster meaningful connections. As an administrator or facility manager, you're responsible for making connected spaces for your staff, teachers, students as well as visitors. You play an essential role in addressing some of the pressing issues looming large over the education sector and implementing innovative tactics and tools that lead, measure, and prepare for a successful reopening strategy.

This guide will show you how to incorporate key tools and techniques that can help you put a framework of safety in place, and promote a well-rounded experience within your educational institution.

IDENTIFICATION SOLUTIONS

Name Badges

A perfect conversation starter in any classroom or event. Name badges can foster connections, and help staff and faculty feel a sense of belonging and safety in the workplace. With the help of an integrated badge program, you can build the prestige and trust of your institution.

Large Format Badges

These badges are perfect to display large bold information, that is easy to read. Customize them with your favorite icon, image, or shape. They are perfect to show that you value a diverse and inclusive environment. They can also be used to display micro-credentials or contributions of staff and students.

Badge Talkers

Badges talkers can be used to communicate holidays and annual events. It's the ideal tool for teachers to display unique messages - the mood of the day, languages spoken, affirmations, mental health quotes, or personal expressions.

Lapel pins

Reward and recognize the accomplishments of your staff or students. Lapel pins are a versatile badge accessory that is perfect for any occasion.

Medallions

Colorful and fun medallions can boost the productivity and morale of students and staff equally. They can be used to celebrate and showcase achievements, equality, diversity, and powerful messages.

ID cards

ID cards are the number-one staple at any campus, whether it's a student card, a security card, or a membership card. They can go a long way in reassuring parents when they drop off their kids, as well as a great identifier for teachers and faculty.

Buttons/ Circle badges

An affordable and fun way to promote annual events, club memberships, charity drives, fundraisers, school campaigns, and school sporting events.

SIGNS

Reusable Metal Standing Signs

These signs are the perfect choice for any kind of display. They are super convenient and an easy way to guide staff and visitors to follow organization rules, guidelines and convey simple messages.

Desk Signs

Contemporary and professionally crafted desk signs help make identifying staff easy and efficient. They make it easy for students and visitors to identify employee's desks, information centers, event counters, and more.

Foam Boards

Movable, easy to hang or mount, foam boards are an easy and affordable signage choice. Great for alumni events, galleries, libraries, school conferences, and classrooms.
